

Geneva - International Nursing Leadership Opportunity

Chief Executive Officer

Founded in 1899, ICN is the widest reaching health care organisation in the world. As the global federation of national nurses' associations (NNAs), ICN represents millions of nurses in more than 130 countries. Operated by nurses for nurses, the organisation works to ensure quality nursing care for all, sound health policies globally, the advancement of nursing knowledge, the presence worldwide of a respected nursing profession and a competent and satisfied nursing workforce.

This is an outstanding opportunity for nurses to build on ICN's successes and help lead the organisation through the next stage of development.

Reporting to and in collaboration with the ICN Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer will:

- Provide effective leadership and management to the organisation, inspiring and motivating the staff, ensuring financial viability and seeking means for diversifying income streams.
- Establish a positive, accountable and collegial working relationship with the President, Executive Committee and Board to develop and implement together the vision and strategic direction of the organisation with its member national nurses associations.
- Act as the promotor of ICN policy, operating as a global leader in nursing and in health, building alliances with key stakeholders and continuing to raise ICN's profile and impact.
- Be responsible for financial management including budgeting, cost control, impact assessment, and fund raising and
- Be a registered nurse with significant leadership and management experience at national and international levels, very strong political skills, and a successful track record of advocating and influencing policy.
- Have a high level of emotional intelligence and flexibility with an understanding of and sensitivity to the complexities of operating within the international arena.
- Be an excellent advocate and negotiator, with strong interpersonal and networking skills, and a track record of managing a high performing organisation.
- Have significant experience working in board-governed, not-for-profit membership organisations
- Have the ability to reside in Geneva or its surrounding communities and travel unencumbered.

Fluency in English is essential for this role; the ability to work in French or Spanish is desirable
